Considering Having a Yard Sale in Walnut Ridge?

Here's what you need to know...

For residents wishing to hold a Yard Sale, here are some general guidelines to be followed:

• Board approval is required to hold a Yard Sale on any of the Association-owned common areas, including but not limited to, the Playground, area adjacent to the Playground and the grassy areas along Walnut Ridge Drive. When requesting approval from the Board, please send an email to the Board at board@walnutridgeonline.org in sufficient time to allow for the Board's response.

- Board approval is also required to hold a Yard Sale in any parking area within the Association-owned streets (Almond, Hazel Nut, Peach or Tanook). Again, when requesting approval from the Board, please send an email to the Board at board@walnutridgeonline.org in sufficient time to allow for the Board's response.
- Approval is not needed to hold a Yard Sale in a resident's own yard.
- If a Yard Sale will be held in a resident's own yard, inform your neighbors of your intention to hold the Yard Sale by providing to them, in advance, the date(s) and time(s) of your sale. Residents should be courteous to their neighbors and not let shoppers trespass onto other residents' property.
- Vehicular traffic cannot be impeded on our streets and Yard Sale shoppers are not to park in other residents' designated parking spaces.
- Inform ProCom (TJames@procomgt.com) of the date(s) and time(s) of your planned Yard Sale.
- If you post signs anywhere in the Community, on mailboxes or on our County roads or intersections, be sure to remove them when your sale ends.

Fun Fact

In June 1979, McDonald's restaurants began selling the Happy Meal. It was circuswagon-themed and came with a standard hamburger or cheeseburger option, as well as French fries, cookies, a soft drink and a toy. Toys in the earliest Happy Meals included a McDoodle stencil, a McWrist wallet, a puzzle lock, a spinning top, or a McDonaldland character-shaped eraser.

Uh-Oh! Outside BBQ Grilling Gone Wrong!

Summer is here and barbeque season has begun. Many folks like to grill, but did you ever notice how many people place their grills close to or right next to the house when they are grilling? Yup, it's convenient, but it's a very serious fire risk.

According to the U.S. Fire Protection Association, in 2013-2017, fire departments went to an average of 10,200 home fires involving grills, hibachis or barbecues per year, including 4,500 structure fires and 5,700 outside or unclassified fires. These fires caused an annual average of 10 civilian deaths, 160 civilian injuries and $123 million in direct property damage.

Here are some outdoor cooking guidelines:

- 1. Wood siding and Grills DO NOT mix! Fired-up grills must be placed at least 10 feet away from the house, or the wood siding could easily catch fire and burn.
- 2. Have a fire extinguisher close by. You should have one close to the grill for an emergency,

3. Keep children away from BBQ grills. Grills and children can both be unpredictable, so it's best that they avoid contact all together.

Choose a rock or cement surface to put your grill on, away from any dry grass, shrubs, or trees. A lot of homeowners prefer to grill on their wooden deck, but since one-third of grill-related fires happen on wooden decks, it's probably not the best place to do that.

Grilling Safety Tips

Follow these basic rules to keep grilled foods safe:

If you plan to marinate meat, poultry or seafood, it should marinate in the refrigerator (not at room temperature). If a marinade is to be brushed on food while it cooks, for safety's sake, do not brush it on during the last five minutes of grilling. If it will be served as a dipping sauce, be sure to boil it for 1 or 2 minutes before serving.

When grilling poultry, meat or seafood, transfer the grilled food to a clean plate, not to the plate used for the raw food.

Hamburger patties should be grilled until they are no longer pink in the center or reach an internal temperature of 160 degrees Fahrenheit.

Keep hot foods hot and cold foods cold when transporting or serving. Do not add fresh food to a serving bowl; replace the bowl instead. Throw away food that has been at room temperature for two hours or more. When in doubt, always throw it out.

Summer 2019

Another spring rolling into summer and I'm strolling through Walnut Ridge With new eyes on the first of many sunny days to come, Appreciating the work of landscapers after the stormy winter, Both Level Green and our creative homeowners. All contributing to a totally beautiful community.

Circled by tall trees on all sides reaching to the sky Trees lining every street, small gardens at the intersections More trees and shrubs beautifying the playground And giving families shade on a hot day and a place for lemonade stands. Even tempting an adventuresome boy to climb to a tree top.

Peeking into backyards without fences Seeing creative landscaping and gardening. Almond Drive with lush backyards, Hazel Nut Court's interesting lawns And Peach Court gardens. Encouraging me to update my own landscaping.

At the end of the day, when you enter Walnut Ridge, Look around at the beauty ahead. Notice your surroundings, relax and soak it in. Appreciate the view, breathe deeply and decompress. But, watch out for kids walking while glued to tablets and iPhones.

Thank you to everyone who contributes to the beauty of Walnut Ridge.

MARYLAND DEPARTMENT OF AGRICULTURE - MOSQUITO CONTROL SECTION

MOSQUITO CONTROL POLICY STATEMENT

OBJECTION TO ADULT MOSQUITO CONTROL

The policy of the Maryland Department of Agriculture regarding an objection to adult mosquito control by truck-mounted ultra low volume (ULV) application of insecticides is as follows:

1 An individual may have his/her owned or leased real property and a surrounding buffer up to 300 feet on all sides of the property excluded from ground based ULV adult mosquito control.

! Each individual requesting this exclusion must submit the request in writing to the Maryland Department of Agriculture and provide copies to the appropriate community association or city/town. The request must provide the address of the property to be excluded and must be signed by the owner(s) or leasee(s). This request will be acknowledged in writing by the Department.

! If the number of individual objectors and the location of excluded properties precludes an effective mosquito control adulticide service in a community, the service in that community will be suspended. Service may be reinstated upon the written request of the community and approval by the Department.

! A city/town or community association may request the Department to rescind or modify a spray exclusion zone if the local authority believes the exemption unfairly impacts other residents who desire adult mosquito control service. Requests to rescind or modify spray exclusion requests must be made in writing and delivered to the Secretary of Agriculture.

1 The Department periodically will verify the continued occupancy/ownership by objectors of properties excluded from ULV ground spraying to determine if the objection continues.

! In the event of mosquito-borne disease or conditions that threaten public health, the suspension of mosquito adulticide service in an area due to objectors will be discontinued and the full range of mosquito control procedures available will be utilized.
